welcome

Welcome to the first edition of Together, our new quarterly news magazine.

Together highlights the amazing work of our fundraising and volunteer teams to support some of the most vulnerable people in the region.

Our fundraising team have been working as hard as ever this year and we've had some great fundraising events that have raised over £183,000 so far. These vital funds go directly to help people who need it most through services such as Epsom Street Community Centre, and through our Crisis Fund.

Our Volunteers play a vital role across our services and in supporting people living with disabilities and vulnerable people living on their own. In the past month they have received awards in recognition of their dedication and passion. We are extremely proud of them all and these accolades really do shine a light on the outstanding work of all our volunteers. You can read more about them on page 19 and 20.

We've got some fabulous Christmas events this year, including Christmas Carol Concerts, the Light up a Life Celebration and our Dementia Friendly Carol Service all in December, and finally don't forget to order your Christmas cards on page 25.

I do hope you enjoy reading our new magazine.

new brand launched

From Nugent Care to Nugent:
Patron and LFC Legend, Phil Thompson, helped staff at Nugent launch their new brand

In this, Nugent's 135th year, the organisation has worked with two Liverpool based companies, digital agency Mashbo and communications consultants Bread Media, to develop a new strategic approach to marketing and communications, a new brand, and new digital tools including four websites.

The most visible aspect is the name change, from Nugent Care to Nugent. This represents a major milestone for an organisation with such an important legacy, having originated in 1881 when Father James Nugent inaugurated the Liverpool Catholic Children's Protection Society.

The development of new websites, wearenugent.org, being the main Nugent site, the first new Nugent site for over 12 years, provides a 21st century online experience and alongside Nugent's social media sites will be the main portal for information about the services available alongside news, case studies and sector news.

Nugent's schools, Nugent House School and Clarence High School will also have new sites, as will Nugent Adoption.

Nugent's patron Phil Thompson said:

"Nugent is a terrific charity and it's been a pleasure to be part of it for over 10 years. The new brand is refreshing, it's going to help Nugent to reach even more vulnerable people across the North West."

Nugent's Marketing and Communications Manager, Mike James said:

"We have a clear strategy now that aims to build our profile and help people to access our services. We are here to stay and will continue helping vulnerable people for years to come, building on our amazing legacy, strengthening our vision and resolve and leading the way in innovation throughout our services."

barclays brighten up the day

During the summer, staff from Barclays Bank visited Geel and Hitchen Court in Aigburth to brighten up their garden space.

A team from their Contact Centre spent the day at the residential care home planting flowers, putting up garden trellis and transforming their green space.

We would like to thank Barclays (Wavertree) for their on going support for Nugent through their Community Programme. They have supported Nugent for a number of years through their pound for pound matched funding scheme, staff volunteering days and donations through holding dress down days.

We are extremely grateful for their support and the projects they have worked on for us.

welcome the stranger

Nugent continue to be involved with the Archdiocese Justice and Peace Commission and were involved with their recent assembly 'Welcome the Stranger'.

Over 120 packed into LACE two days after the EU referendum. Archbishop Malcolm opened the event saying how proud he was to be in a City that voted to remain. Nugent and Hope + (from the Anglican Cathedral) ran a workshop on how parishes can support refugees. The Mayor of Liverpool Joe Anderson attended and on behalf of the City thanked the faith communities for all the support, care and advocacy that we offer to refugees and asylum seekers.

epsy on air thanks to myp ball

A staggering £8,743.47 has been raised by the Merseyside Young Professional's Charity Ball towards the introduction of a radio station at Epsom Street Community Centre.

The radio station will help local children who attend the centre's after school and school holiday sessions to build confidence, engage with the wider community and develop media skills that will stand them in good stead for the future.

Jennifer Christian-Campbell from Quilter Cheviot Liverpool, a wealth management firm and one of the organisers of the fundraising ball, said,

"It is fantastic to see the funds raised by the Merseyside Young Professionals Ball put to such good use and to witness for myself how the donation will make a positive impact on the children who attend Epsom Street."

Everyone at Nugent and especially Epsom Street is truly appreciative of this amazing support and fantastic donation towards the Radio Epsom project.

don't look down

The sun was shining on the Liverpool Anglican Cathedral on Saturday 6 August for Nugent's abseil team.

Seventeen Nugent supporters and staff braved the challenge in front of them, and abseiled down the Liverpool Anglican Cathedral, taking in the wonderful sights at no less than 303 feet in support of our Crisis Fund.

We are extremely grateful to everyone who took part, especially those who faced their fear of heights to complete this challenge.

inclusive mass

'God in His Mercy cares for you'. This was the theme of the Inclusive Mass at the Cathedral on Sunday 25th September.

It was based on the Gospel reading from St Luke 12:22-31 about how much God cares for the birds of the air and the lilies of the field, but cares for us all even more.

The Cathedral altar was decorated in a blaze of bright colours depicting all the birds and flowers in all their glory. These were made previously in parish groups and also on the craft tables inside the Cathedral, led by the highly trained and willing volunteers from St Edwards College. Many had just returned from Lourdes proudly wearing their yellow shirts, so they could be easily seen scattered all over the Cathedral, helping to support and care for anyone in need.

After the welcome from Fr Mark the Mass began with a procession leading us outside to the Holy Door of Mercy, where the penitential rite was led by Bishop Tom. It concluded with Denise and the Clubmoor group leading us back into the Cathedral through the Holy Door of Mercy, with beautifully choreographed movements reflecting the celebration and glory of our forgiveness.

Many took part in the preparation of the Mass, from all over the Archdiocese, for which we would like to offer our thanks, especially for our volunteers Jonathan and Lynsey who took part in the offertory procession, and for Harriet who sang so inspiringly after Holy Communion for us.

We would also like to thank the two ladies from St Clare's UCM who came especially to help serve everyone a well earned and much appreciated cup of tea and biscuit afterwards!

ent crisis fund

Nugent are very aware of the pressure disadvantaged families are facing and in the past year we have received numerous requests from schools about their children and families who are in crisis. We have been asked to help supply food to families, to support the purchase of washing machines and freezers, and to purchase school uniform and shoes.

Keeping true to our mission to provide care, educate, protect and inspire those in need we have been able to support recent requests from donations received over Christmas, we are experiencing more unmet need in the form of crisis intervention for children and adults who are living in poverty.

We have set up a new initiative called the Crisis Fund for children in schools within the Archdiocese. The fund will provide one-off grants to support families where a relatively small amount of funding can make a big difference. The funding criteria will be flexible in terms of the specific items we will help families purchase. Funds will only be available for families in exceptional circumstances. This fund is in line with Nugent's laccord principles of compassion, dignity, respect and integrity and is in line with Catholic Social Teaching.

A few months ago we were contacted by the lay chaplain at a high school about a family in need. The father of one of their students received a custodial sentence for domestic violence. The mother turned to the school in a desperate last attempt and asked for help. She has several children and has had to be rehoused, the children were sleeping on the floor, her family were helping out with food donations and she was using a neighbour's fridge and freezer to keep the food in. School were supporting as much as they could and turned to us for help. We were able to give a donation to the school, they then purchased the items the family needed on our behalf.

The School Chaplain said:

"I wanted to pass on thanks from the family you donated the £500 for. Mum was in tears with gratitude and relief when we were able to get a fridge freezer delivered, as well as getting two single beds, with mattresses and bedding, bedding for three double beds, a fifteen piece crockery set, eight towels and a new PE kit for the boy at our school. God bless the bargains at B&M! We cannot thank you enough for your help and generosity in making a life changing difference to one of our families"

If you would like to make a donation to the crisis fund to help local children and families please send cheques payable to Nugent. Alternatively, log onto:

nugent volunteer wins top award

Nugent Volunteer, John McCormick, has won the Jaguar Land Rover Community Group Award for his service to the Bootle Community Group and Nugent in the Liverpool Echo Awards 2016.

The awards, hosted by former Big Brother star Craig Phillips and Hollyoaks actress Jessica Fox, saw the great and good of Merseyside honoured for their achievements. John was honoured for his service to the Bootle Community Group and for playing a vital role enriching people's lives.

John has been a volunteer with Nugent for over 35 years, starting by going along to meet and support people in the group, he has been running the Thursday evening meetings for 32 years.

"The group has become a shining light for its members, a hive of activity with games, crafts and music."

Members describe John as an 'inspirational, hardworking and dynamic individual, who is truly passionate about making sure that people with learning disabilities are included and involved with their local community'.

John balances his career, family life and the group with never ending energy and a smile on his face. Every Thursday he drives the minibus round the local area to pick members up and take them to the Centre. John has a group of dedicated volunteers helping with activities and ensuring everyone has a chance to join in.

The team also organise fundraising activities to provide vital funds for trips and nights out. Most recently they collected donations at the Liverpool Empire at a performance of Cats. John said:

"Over the years I and the group have made some brilliant friendships based on love and support. It's great to get this award, I'm really honoured, it was a surprise to be nominated, but to win, I was totally taken aback, speechless for once!"

opening doors

Opening doors is changing the lives of isolated older people in Knowlsey.

Betty used to love going out, she went out every day and loved to visit her sister and was very active until a recent fall some months ago. She now uses a walking frame to get around the house and has lost all her confidence and had not been out for several months until she became involved with the Opening Doors project.

Betty is 88 years old, she lives alone and has no friends. Her sister is in a care home and her brother is the sole carer for his wife.

Social workers had tried to encourage Betty to attend different day activities but to no avail as Betty is too nervous to go out alone after the fall.

We introduced Betty to Jean, a Nugent volunteer, together they went and took part in chair based exercise class. Jean supported Betty for twelve weeks to go to the classes. That extra support from the volunteer has had a massive impact on Betty's life as she has made new friends and now feels more involved in the local community and doesn't feel isolated any more. Betty is now confident to go the exercise classes on her own and looks forward to seeing her new friends every week.

If you would like to help older isolated people get involved in their community again please get in touch with us. We are working in the Knowlsey area and the volunteer commitment is for twelve weeks.

Please call Leanne or Emily on 0151 261 2046.

flintoff donates to epsy

Andrew 'Freddie' Flintoff MBE gave the proceeds from his meet and greet event to the children of Epsom Street Community Centre.

Normandie Wragg and Marie Reynolds attended the event and met with 'Freddie' to talk about Nugent's children's services. Over £2,000 was donated and this has been used to create a new kitchen to teach the children cooking skills.

golf classic a roaring success

Our annual Phil Thompson Golf Classic took place on Thursday 26 May 2016 and was kindly sponsored again by Hardie Brack Chartered Surveyors.

This event was held at Houghwood Golf Course and raised just over £13,500. Golfers enjoyed a round of golf followed by an evening meal with an after dinner speech by ex-Liverpool player Phil Neal. Phil Thompson, Nugent's Patron, presented the winners with their prizes, donated by Lynx Golf.

global scouse day

One of our Charity Partners, Carringtons Catering supported Epsom Street on Global Scouse Day (February 28) with donations of tasty pans of Scouse!

Director of Carringtons Catering, Helen Wynn, said:

“With Global Scouse Day events taking place across the city, we wanted to mark the Liverpool-centric occasion by giving something back to the community. Instead of adding the popular dish to our menus, we decided to make up a number of pans of the city’s renowned Scouse to take down to the inspiring initiative, Epsom Street.

We wanted to provide the culinary homemade treat to allow everybody who uses its services to enjoy a delicious bowl of the famous stew.

We have served up an exclusive recipe, devised and cooked up by our very own Master Chef of Great Britain, Darren Wynn, and his culinary team.

The tasty dish was made with nostalgic ingredients providing the inimitable taste of home.”

With more than 35 years experience, Carringtons

Catering is an independent first class catering company renowned throughout the North West for its innovative and inventive hospitality solutions.

Helen added:

“Carringtons Catering is passionate about giving something back, which is why our team regularly participates in innovative fundraising activities for Nugent.”

awards galore for our volunteers

The 800 group Awards, A consortium of Merseyside charities, took place on 17 September and Nugent and our volunteers triumphed.

Nugent was awarded Charity of the year, whilst George and Mary Cureton, Leaders of the Netherton Community Group and Joanne Smith, a volunteer with Nugent Opening Doors Service, all won awards for their volunteer work.

George and Mary Cureton are parents to two adults with severe learning and physical disabilities. They set up the Netherton Community Group in 1989 so other parents of adults with learning and physical disabilities had a base to meet in Litherland. The Group has become a vital part of the community with many long standing members.

Joanne has been a volunteer since November 2015 and has made a positive impact to people's lives by providing support to several people who are lonely, isolated and unable to get out of the house on their own due to lack of confidence and independence. Joanne has also recently started an additional role, completing 'Read to Lead' training and is now delivering her own reading group in the Huyton area for Nugent and the Reader Organisation.

Our volunteers provide a vital role and support to many vulnerable people. These awards give recognition to the invaluable work they do in their communities.

We are so very proud of them all. You can read more about George, Mary and Joanne and the Opening Doors service at wearenugent.org.

feeding liverpool

Members of Caritas in Nugent and Nugent's Fundraising Team attended the launch of the 'Feeding Liverpool' event.

Feeding Liverpool is one of a growing network of local projects following the Report of the All-Party Parliamentary Inquiry into Hunger in the UK published in December 2014 and called 'Feeding Britain: A strategy for zero hunger in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland'.

Feeding Liverpool is an initiative of Churches

Together in Merseyside and Region because faith groups are so often involved in the provision of food banks and other food projects. But there is no intention to go it alone. Rather, the purpose is to provide an arena for working in partnership with three main aims:

Firstly, to share good practice about emergency provision;

Secondly, to campaign for change in those policies that cause or reinforce poverty;

Finally, to raise public awareness about the extent of food poverty and the damaging effects of austerity measures on welfare provision.

Further updates on the Archdiocesan Justice and Peace Commission and Feeding Liverpool will be provided in future editions of Nugent's newsletters.

good shepherd masses

This June we welcomed thousands of children from our schools across the Archdiocese to our Good Shepherd Masses at Leyland St. Mary's Church and the Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King.

This year for the first time ever we had our very own Good Shepherd Choir at the Liverpool Mass which saw 300 children from our schools come together for the Mass. The support once again received from our Primary and Secondary Schools within the Archdiocese has been phenomenal.

This year's theme was the Year of Mercy and in particular the seven corporal works of mercy, feeding the hungry, shelter the homeless and visit the sick, which relates to the work of Nugent.

Throughout the year Nugent continues to support lots of different people. We look after children who are not able to live with their families in our children's homes, we find forever families through our adoption work, we look after older people including those living with dementia in our care homes, and we support children and adults who are living in poverty with practical and financial support.

At the very heart of Nugent we believe that every person is valued and campaign that we treat all people with respect and dignity. The Good Shepherd appeal enables schools and parishes to work alongside us and actively engage young people to work together to alleviate poverty and discrimination.

christmas appeal: christine's story

Nugent has been working alongside children and adults to provide meaningful help and support that enables the people we serve to live a more active, purposeful and dignified life.

Often the people we support are struggling with the day to day issues of low pay, unemployment, isolation, age, disability, inadequate housing, benefit reforms and poverty. Many vulnerable and isolated people in our communities would go unnoticed if not for the work of dedicated people in local communities.

At Nugent we have continued to support people living in poverty for over 100 years. Each Christmas Nugent runs a Christmas appeal, this year we are inviting you to help people living in poverty.

Nugent strives to provide the best possible service to individuals and families in some of the most vulnerable and disadvantaged communities. We understand the issues that people face, last Christmas one of those people was Christine, and she would have been living on the streets without Nugent. Christine is in her mid-50's. She has been working in low paid, part time jobs since she was 16; In the past she has overcome some debt problems. She is a grandmother who has always put her family first.

Christine supports her daughter who is bringing up two girls aged 6 and 13. Christine's daughter was in a very violent and volatile relationship. Christine and her daughter were both victims of the violence, and the partner is now serving a jail sentence. The violence towards Christine escalated and to protect herself she fled from her home and ended up sofa surfing in friends' houses.

New accommodation was found for Christine but she could not afford the rent and therefore this put her in more debt. Last Christmas she was at a very low point in her life. She relied on food banks to eat and support from one of Nugent's services.

About a week before Christmas affordable accommodation was found for Christine. Unfortunately the new accommodation did not have a cooker. Nugent provided Christine with a cooker and ensured that it was fitted before Christmas so that she could cook for her family. She was given food, bedding and duvets so that all her family could be together over the festive period. Toys were given to her granddaughters.

Christine said;

"I would have been on the streets without Nugent. Can you believe that at my age I was sofa surfing? There is no way I could have ever paid for a new cooker, you have saved my life and my sanity, I was going under with the stress of everything, you even gave me new pyjamas for my granddaughters for Christmas Eve, thank you. I am now getting back on my feet because of your help."

Christine is now volunteering with a local community centre and working towards her level 3 in play work.

Christine added:

"I am getting my life back bit, by bit and couldn't have done it without the help from Nugent."

Your donation to Nugent will enable us to reach out and help more people like Christine and her family. To donate to this year's appeal please contact the fundraising team on 0151 261 2000.

clarence garden motors on

Staff from Jaguar Land Rover spent a day at Clarence High School to help with tidying the garden and grounds.

They dismantled an old greenhouse which Clarence donated to the YMCA, for their work with homeless people. The greenhouse is being used to grow plants and food for the clients of the YMCA. Huge thanks to the staff from Jaguar Land Rover for their help and support.
